

- Selected Greek myths in the Literacy and Language scheme.
- Independent reading for 20 minutes daily.
- A variety of themed books available from library loans.

Pandora from Pandora's point of view. Writing a letter as the lone survivor of a catastrophe. Weekly 'Big Write' themed sessions.

- Non-fiction: Writing a set of instructions for making ice-cream.

fiction.

- Using commas, brackets and dashes for extra information.

- Building cohesion within paragraphs.

- Looking at different maps to identify points of interest.
- Fieldwork skills including photography

Mathematics

Number

- Place value of large whole numbers.
- Addition of 4-digit numbers mentally and using the column method.
- Subtraction as above.
- Multiplication of up to 4-digits by 2-digits.
- Division of up to 4-digits by a 1-digit number.
- Identifying and naming equivalent fractions of a given fraction.

Reasoning

- Worded problems involving the four functions of number, at least two-step.

Measurement

- Solving problems converting between units of time, including seconds and years.

Geometry

- 2D and 3D shape identification and classification. Identifying regular and irregular polygons.

Statistics

- Time; complete, read and interpret information in tables,

Languages

In our French lessons, we will be:

- Looking at recipes.
- Looking at menus.
- Traditional songs/instruments.
- Comparing and contrasting towns.
- Finding out about currencies.

Religious

Educational

We will be studying various aspects of Buddhism

- The Buddha and his teachings.
- Meditation – what is meditation, and can it have?
- Sacred text – The Monkey King and the Science

Earth and Space:

- Investigating trends in planetary data, such as temperature and distance from the sun.
- Keeping a moon diary to monitor change over time.
- Investigating the link between mass and weight on

SMSC & PHSE

- New beginnings; how it feels to start or do something new.
- Big questions; is being angry ever a good thing? Can you tell how someone feels by looking at his or her face?

Physical

Educational

- Outdoor: Orienteering and team-build such as following a route on a map and empathising with team members and

